

My offerings have broadened beyond handbags in recent months. Various styles of aprons, wine and growler caddies, heating pads, and bibs make excellent gift ideas. . . especially when custom-ordered!

HOST A JH PARTY

By hosting a party in your own home, you can earn 50% off two JH bags of your choice.

With as few as four guests, an open area for me to set up my tables, and an offering of hors d'oeuvres for your eager guests, you're off and running.

Considering it? Go to my Party page and initiate a conversation with me: https://www.joyhandbags.us/host-and-in-home-party

JOY HANDBAGS

Do you and your friends like individualized shopping experiences? Are you dismayed when stores don't carry precisely what you have in mind? Do discounts pique your interest? Are you looking for a unique opportunity to bring your besties together in one place?

Questions that you or your guests might have:

Do guests pay ahead for custom orders?

No, they pay after the item has been made.

Which forms of payment are accepted?

cash, checks, credit cards, Venmo

Are guests granted any discounts?

All ready-made items will be marked down for the duration of the event (between 20 & 30%).

What does the host receive? (And when?)

50% off two ready-made items, or a $35.00 credit, which can be used during the party, for a custom order, or for an item chosen later.

What if a guest is dissatisfied with the product?

I will refund in full and arrange to pick up or have the item shipped back.

NOT SURE ABOUT HOSTING?

What's it all about, and is it for you?

Typical Timeline:

- Initial conversation with me in which we agree on a date and time for your party. Evenings are of course best, and duration is 2 to 2 1/2 hours.
- You select and inform invitees. They may wish to offer to bring some type of munchie or bottle of wine.
- Feel free to get a sense of what your guests might like to see or order, and pass that information along to me. (Depending on lead time, I may be able to prepare specific things.)
- I arrive at least 45 minutes ahead of your guests in order to set up. I bring available inventory, two folding tables, fabric swatches, "Quick Reference Sheets" (that describe items that can be custom-made), and order forms.
- I give a quick introduction in which I explain my process and the items that are new to my line.
- Madness and laughter ensue while everyone chats, browses, plays with fabric swatches, and nibbles and sips!
- It takes me about two weeks to complete the custom orders.
- I deliver the orders to your house. If this is inconvenient for a "shopper" to pick it up at your house, I can arrange to package and ship the order directly. (Max.) charge for shipping: $7.50
